

Dancing by His Grace

Summer 2022 performances

Samuels Public Library FREE performances and interactive programs:

Saturday, May 14th at 3pm

"Flowers Festival Ballet" for Mother's Day with a Flower Crown Craft

Thursday, June 16th at 2pm (Elementary and up)

School may be out, but reading is ALWAYS in! Join Dancing By His Grace Classical Ballet Ensemble for "Childhood Songs"

See a few storybook songs come to life, have a Q & A with the dancers, and make your own storybook ballet with the guidance of Artistic Director and Professional Ballet Teacher, Karen Eriksson-Lee, and Classical Ballet Teacher, Katya Stafira.

Thursday, June 23rd at 2pm (Early Childhood - pre-k/K,1st, 2nd)

AND Friday, July 22nd at 2pm (Early Childhood - pre-k/K,1st, 2nd)

Come explore Music and Movement with Dancing By His Grace Classical Ballet's Artistic Director and Professional Ballet Teacher, Karen Eriksson-Lee, and Classical Ballet Teacher, Katya Stafira.

Sing, dance, explore musical instruments, and have fun putting them all together! Learn about Composer Camille Saint Saëns and his beautiful "Carnival of the Animals" while dancing like the fish in the aquarium, or the swans on the lake, or maybe the elephant in the circus! Come one, come all, and have some fun!

Friday, July 15th at 2pm (Elementary and up)

Discover some of the great composers and choreographers of dance! From Ballet to Tap to Jazz! Learn choreography and hear a variety of musical pieces, as well as create your own "DANCE & MUSIC APPRECIATION BOOK" to add to each year, with the guidance of Artistic Director and Professional Ballet Teacher, Karen Eriksson-Lee, and Classical Ballet Teacher, Katya Stafira.
